The Cross - Jesus in China 2 DVD (4 Episodes) Set

It took three years for China Soul For Christ Foundation to complete the documentary film The Cross - Jesus in China. For the first time in history, Christianity in China, especially the House Church, is given an honest, insightful, and comprehensive account. The film answers the question raised by many people outside China: how did the number of Chinese Christians increase from 700,000 in 1949 to approximate 70 million today despite communist control? Using live footage and interviews, the film captures the true stories of many people and seeks to answer the most common questions: how does the Chinese government deal with Chinese Christians and vice-versa? How did Chinese Christians develop, survive and grow? What kind of people are they and what influence have they had and will have on Chinese society? Transcripts of the DVDs are available at www.chinasoul.org Call Number: DVD10

Faith That Endures: The Essential Guide to the Persecuted Church by Ronald Boyd-MacMillan

In many underprivileged countries, the church is under constant persecution. Christians everywhere have heard the stories and seen the newscasts. But there are too many who still don't understand. What does persecution really look like up close? And what can we learn from the faithful endurance persecuted Christians so boldly embody? Ronald Boyd-MacMillan, writer-at-large for Open Doors International, has produced the most compelling and comprehensive look at Christian persecution today. With real life stories, he educates readers on the many levels of church persecution, highlights testimonies that have never before been published, and shows what we all can do to remember, reflect, and respond. Compassionate and provocative, Faith That Endures gives readers a path of connection to their persecuted brothers and sisters in a new and vital way, even as it enlightens and encourages us in our local churches and brings us closer to God. Call Number: Q5

Husbands & Wives

"Husbands, love your wives. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands" (Ephesians 5:22, 25). God's Word has challenging commands related to marriage. The CHAPEL LIBRARY has a number of resources to help in this area. The practical principles in these resources are not just for newlyweds, but every married couple can be challenged by them to honour the Lord in their marriages.

Marriage and the Family by A. J. Higgins, M. D.

Dr. A. J. Higgins is a practicing physician who, in his clinical practice, daily answers questions that relate to home and family. He has excellent training and has gained a wealth of experience, but the truth taught in this volume is from Scripture. Dr. Higgins has not resorted to a psychological approach with a few Scriptures added on to give a Christian flavour, but has given the exposition of Scripture, as it relates to the Christian home and family, with practical application that is in full harmony with the interpretation of the Word of God.

This is excellent teaching for a Christian young couple contemplating marriage. It is also a most valuable guide to young parents as they face the solemn responsibilities of raising a family in the 21st century. It is even recommended for those who have been married for many years as a refresher course in what it means to truly care for one another, that their lives may be fuller and richer and lived more for the glory of God and the blessing of others. There is also a chapter that has already proved to be a blessing to many in dealing with an unmarried believer.

Men and Women, Equal Yet Different: A Brief Study of the Biblical Passages on Gender by Alexander Strauch

Among Bible-believing Christians, the gender revolution has spawned intense, emotional controversy over what the Bible says about the roles of men and women. There are two major viewpoints in this debate, the evangelical feminist view and the complementarian view, or the non-feminist view.

In this book Strauch states and defends the complementarian viewpoint. Written in outline form, the book presents Biblical evidence that Jesus Christ taught that men and women are equal yet different and introduces the key terms, arguments, and most recent research related to the complementarian position. It also provides an easy-to-read summary of all the key Scripture passages commonly used in the gender debate.

The Hope: The Story of God's Promise for All People

The HOPE began with the vision for a media tool that could be used to reach people everywhere with the good news of Jesus Christ. Mars Hill Productions launched The HOPE by seeking the input of hundreds of missionaries and ministries. These ministry partners were asked, "If such a tool is needed, then what should it look like?" From the response, there emerged a common theme. Such a tool would indeed have a significant Great Commission impact if it met the following criteria that now distinguish The HOPE:

Quality

Over 4 years in the making, The HOPE includes some of the world's most renowned cinematic presentations of the Bible, as well as state-of-the-art special effects. The HOPE script is the result of extensive research and consultation with prominent theologians and missiologists.

The Whole Story, Creation to Christ

We live in a complex world with many conflicting views about God. In cultures that lack or have lost the influence of a Biblical worldview, a Gospel presentation that moves too quickly toward a decision for Christ is often ineffective. In some Asian cultures, people do not see the need for a Savior because they have no real concept of sin. In India, people with a polytheistic worldview have been known to simply add Jesus to the list of other gods they worship. And in post-Christian, Biblically illiterate western cultures, many people are quick to dismiss the Christian faith as a sociological phenomenon. They've yet to encounter the record and scope of God's involvement in human history.

In the Bible, God has related the plan of redemption, not as a set of spiritual truths, but as a grand story. The HOPE is a powerful presentation of this story, from beginning to end.

Versatile and Time Sensitive

The HOPE consists of 36 Events organized into 12 Chapters and 4 Sections. The entire program may be viewed in less than 80 minutes, or it may be viewed in segments over a period of days, weeks, or months.

Beyond the Gates of Splendor

In 1956, five American missionaries to Ecuador (Nate Saint, Jim Elliot, Ed McCully, Peter Fleming, and Roger Youderian) were speared to death by a savage Stone Age tribe of Indians known as the Aucas, while attempting to contact and evangelize them. Two years later, the wife and sister of two of the murdered missionaries walked into the jungle to live with the same people who had murdered the men they loved. Today, the Aucas (now known as the Waodani) are a changed people.

This documentary film combines interviews with character storytelling to carry the audience from the early 1950s to the present day. Narrated by Steve Saint, son of Nate Saint, and each of the wives of the men who died, the film is an inspiring story of forgiveness and love.

Billions or Thousands?

Is this universe billions or thousands of years old? Did it evolve or was it created? What is carbon dating? When did the dinosaurs exist? Is there scientific evidence to prove the creation account as outlined in the Bible? The CHAPEL LIBRARY has recently acquired a number of resources on the topic of creationism which will answer these questions and more.

Tornado in a Junkyard: The Relentless Myth of Darwinism by James Perloff

This work by James Perloff attacks the myth of Darwinism from several angles. With evidence, or rather lack thereof, from the fossil record, Perloff demonstrates that there is no fossil support for evolution, as known by Darwin himself. Other arguments include why mutations cannot serve as the building block of evolution, why chance could not create even one of thousands of essential proteins for life, why radiometric dating techniques are not indisputable methods, and more. This work will serve as a resource for those interested in apologetics, and particularly creation versus evolution.

Topics on Missions

Peace Child by Don Richardson (DVD & Book)

This unforgettable documentary features Don and Carol Richardson as themselves and Sawi tribespeople re-enacting the events surrounding the Richardsons' arrival among their tribe.

For centuries, the Sawi have lived as cannibal-headhunters, each Sawi village warring with the others. Ordinary murder is nothing to them. To be a "legend maker", you have to create a special scenario in which you pretend to make peace with someone, then kill him when his guard is down. This Sawi ideal is called "tuwi asonai man" ["having caught a pig, to do..."], which means "to fatten with friendship for unexpected slaughter" as one would fatten a pig. The Sawi have no word for nor concept of God; they believe only in disinterested or malevolent demons and spirits of the dead. When missionary Richardson has learned the Sawis' language and tells them the story of Jesus, to his disappointment they brighten at the account of Judas' betrayal of Jesus, and regard Judas as a super-Sawi and as the hero of the story. Richardson feels that he has failed. And his very presence has caused several Sawi villages to come into unnaturally close contact, thereby precipitating constant outbreaks of fighting. Find out how Richardson overcomes this obstacle and uses the "Peace Child" to present the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Lords of the Earth by Don Richardson

From the author of Peace Child, Don Richardson, comes Lords of the Earth, an unforgettable story of missionary tenacity and zeal that sold over 100,000 copies in the hardcover edition.

Engulfed in the darkness of Irian Jaya's Snow Mountains live the Yali—naked cannibals who call themselves "lords of the earth." Yet in terror and bondage they serve women-hating, child-despising gods. Missionary Stan Dale dared to enter their domain.

Lords of the Earth is the story of Dale, his wife, his companions, and thousands of Yali tribesmen—all swept together in a maelstrom of agony and blood that climaxes in a dramatic, unexpected ending. If you were captivated by Don Richardson's "can't-put-it-down" style in Peace Child, you will be moved by Lords of the Earth in a new and different way.

The Story of St. Nicholas: More Than Reindeer and a Red Suit by Cheryl Odden (Book)

Buried beneath the legends and tales of Santa Claus lies a story of a steadfast, godly man who refused to deny Christ—Nicholas of Myra, or "Saint" Nicholas. Throughout the centuries, many of his amazing stories have been told. However, few have heard about how he suffered for Jesus Christ.

Under the cruel Roman emperor Diocletian, Nicholas was thrown in prison for refusing to deny Jesus as God. Upon his release, he continued following in the footsteps of Christ through his unreserved giving and courage.

He later met further opposition, this time from the church. After Constantine took the throne and reportedly converted to Christianity, a false teaching began to invade the church. At a meeting of church leaders, Nicholas stood up for Christ and slapped the face of the man spreading the lies. For this, Nicholas could no longer be a leader in the church, but that didn't stop him from going out of his way to share the love of Christ by helping children and others in need.

His story of courage and generosity in the face of persecution from the government and conflict within the church is for anyone. Your children will be amazed to read of such bravery and tenacity of the man behind the legend of "Santa Claus." May their faith, and yours, never be the same!

EXPELLED: No Intelligence Allowed (DVD)

Ben Stein, the highly recognizable television personality, actor and former White House presidential speech writer, is on a journey to answer one of the biggest questions ever asked: 'Were we created, or are we the result of random chance - a mud puddle struck by lightning?' Stein, who is also a lawyer, an economist, an author and social commentator, is stunned by what he finds on his journey. He discovers an elitist scientific establishment that has traded in its skepticism for dogma. But even worse, Stein uncovers a long line of biologists, astronomers, chemists and philosophers who have had their reputations destroyed and their careers ruined by a scientific establishment that allows absolutely no dissent from Charles Darwin's theory of random mutation and natural selection. "EXPELLED: No Intelligence Allowed" uncovers that educators and scientists are being ridiculed, denied jobs and even fired in some cases for the fact that they believe there is evidence of "design" in nature, challenging the idea that life is a result of random chance.

The film opened in the Top 10 in 2008, achieving the number 5 position on a per-screen average. It has reportedly already made its place in history as the Number 12 Top Grossing Documentary of all time, and the Number 1 Conservative Documentary. The initial buzz about the film was so intense that it became the #1 most popular blog on the Internet (3/24/08), the #6 Top search on Yahoo (4/8/08), and received over 2 million web hits, more than any other movie's website during this time. It landed the title as the Top Grossing Documentary of 2008.

When the German George Müller (1805-1898) accepted Christ, he gave his life to serve Him unreservedly. Müller's mission was to rescue orphans from the wretched street life that enslaved so many children in England during the time of Charles Dickens and Oliver Twist.
