Peter Kerr[a former teacher at KLBC] is planning to come to PEI again this summer to speak at our Family Camp which is running from August 5-10. Because Peter is involved in Emmaus Bible courses he wants to do some ministry in the Assemblies on the Island while he is here. He is an amazing personable man and tremendous teacher. We are looking for housing for him and his family while they are on the Island. He, along with his wife and four daughters, will arrive on July 25 so he will have time to do some ministering before Family camp starts. He will be at camp from Aug 5-10 and will plan to leave the Island on Monday, August 13 so he will need housing from July 25-Aug 4 and then from Aug 11-13. A vacant house while someone is on vacation would be just perfect and they would care for all their own needs. If you are interested contact Gerry or Sharon.
