CF4Kids Trailblazers series: A Cry from Iran

Call Number: DVD.Q3

***This is the story of Joseph Hovsepian's father, who spoke at the recent Voice of the Martyrs reception in Charlottetown.*****

Mehdi Dibaj had been imprisoned for 10 years when in 1993 a judge issued an official death sentence. Dibaj's only crime was converting from Islam to Christianity. A copy of the official execution order leaked to Haik Hovsepian, the leader of the Evangelical Christians in Iran. Haik, at peril to his own life, released the document and launched an international campaign to bring an end to the civil rights violations of the Iranian Islamic courts. International pressure mounted, and the Iranian government was forced to release Dibaj at the eleventh hour. But there is a price to pay. An award-winning, expertly documented story, A Cry from Iran includes hidden camera footage filmed in Iran during the actual events (christianbook.com).

Torchlighters: John Wesley

Call Number: DVD. D16.12

a man, Wesley tries to live out that special purpose on his own strength and good works, but it only brings frustration and failure.

Finally, after years of struggle, Wesley embraces saving grace! But his new message is not welcome in the established churches. Will John break all the rules and take his message outside the church walls to the needy and outcast? Find out in this action-paced episode of The Torchlighters, featuring the founder of the Methodist movement (christianbook.com).

The Drop Box

Call Number: DVD.C13

Hundreds of unwanted babies are abandoned on the streets of Seoul, South Korea, every year, forgotten by the surrounding culture.

The Drop Box is a documentary about the work of Pastor Lee Jong-rak and his heroic efforts to embrace and protect his community's most vulnerable children. By installing a drop box outside his home, Pastor Lee provides a safe haven to babies who would otherwise be abandoned on the streets to die.

It's a heart-wrenching exploration of the physical and emotional toll associated with providing refuge to save those deemed unwanted by society.

But it's also a story of hope. And a celebration of the reality that every human life is sacred, has a purpose and is worthy of love (thedropboxfilm.com).

Me, Myself, & Bob: A True Story about Dreams, God, and Talking Vegetables

by Phil Vischer
Call Number: C49

This is a story of dreaming big and working hard, of spectacular success and breathtaking failure, of shouted questions, and, at long last, whispered answers. With trademark wit and heart, Phil Vischer shares how God can use the death of a dream to point us toward true success.

Larry. Bob. Archibald. Their antics are known around the world. But so much of the VeggieTales story hasn't been told. In Me, Myself, and Bob, Phil Vischer, founder of Big Idea and creator of VeggieTales, gives a behind-the-scenes look at his not-so-funny journey with the loveable veggies. From famed creator to bankrupt dreamer, Vischer shares his story of trial and ultimate triumph as God inspired him with one big idea after another (ruthschristianbookstore.com).
